A STANDARD HISTORY BY
GEN. LEE.
A Work of National and Permanent Value.
MEMOIRS OF THE WAR,
By Gen. Henry Lee.
("LIGHT HORSE HARRY")
Thoroughly Revised and Annotated,
BY GEN. ROBERT E. LEE.
WHO HAS ADDED A FULL BIOGRAPHY OF HIS FATHER.

1 vol. octavo, 640 pages, with new Steel Portraits of Gen. Henry Lee, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and Gen. Nathaniel Greene; beautiful Steel Engravings of "Marion Crossing the Pedee," and the "Surrender of Cornwallis;" Maps of the Siege of Charleston, S. C; the Siege of Yorktown, Va.; the Battle fought near Camden; the Battle of Guilford; the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill; and a sketch of Gen. Henry Lee's residence.

This admirable history of the operations of the American Armies during the Revolutionary War in the Southern Department of the United States is the standard work on the subject of which it treats; and this new edition, revised, corrected, and enlarged by Gen. Robert E. Lee, the distinguished son of the author, and embellished by elegant Engravings, and original Maps never before published, is a volume of the highest value to every intelligent person.

This history has been for a long time out of print, and because of its accuracy as a history of that interesting period and that there was no work to supply its place it was much sought for and a new edition demanded.

It is seldom that a historical work by a distinguished author has the advantage of a revision by so distinguished a son, and both of them great military leaders in the same section of the country.

Gen. Lee receives a LARGE COPYRIGHT UPON EVERY COPY OF THE BOOK SOLD. Sold only by subscription.

PRICE:—Handsomely bound in Cloth, $4 00.

NOTICE TO THE ENTERPRISING.

I PURPOSE TO LEAVE HOME, ABOUT THE 10th of January next, for North West Louisiana, and wish to engage from 12 to 20 able bodied men, black and white (small families no objection) to open up to Cotton cultivation, several tracts of Land, partially improved; consisting of choice selections of uplands on, and near the West Bank of the Ouachita (called Washita) River; and bottom lands on the East side of said River, as also on the Bœuff River and its tributaries. All immediately on navigable streams; and producing 1½ to 2 Bales Cotton per acre under good cultivation and favorable seasons. They abound in the very best Stave and Ship Cypress, and pine timber. Cord wood for steamboats and Rafting timber for the Sugar plantations, lower down on the Mississippi River. Health about equal to that of Eastern North Carolina.

Enterprising men willing and competent to embark in the lumber business, in any of its forms, will find a most ample field for large profits. The price of Cypress plank is from $25 to $8 per thousand; of pine from $20 to $25, both greatly in demand along the Ouachita and its navigable tributaries. Day laborers get good rations and 15 to 20 dollars per month; Mechanics from 2 to 6 dollars per day.

Shoemakers, Tanners, Blacksmiths, Wheelwrights and especially Gin-wrights can find ready employment in the vicinity of these lands. About $30 emigrant rates, and about $60 Passenger rates only, will be required, to get each one through. I propose to superintend in person as many of these places, as I can procure suitable settlers for each emigrant when arrived, may according to agreement, work for wages, or on shares; or may purchase the lands on 3 years credit paying 8 per cent. interest on the present agreed price.

ALSO,

Wanted, Tenants, for Four small Places in Franklin county lying six miles from Franklinton Depot, in good condition for the next crop. I can furnish a few superior cows and stock hogs for all these places, upon easy terms to the occupant.

ALSO.

Wanted to lease for 3 years, all the premises on which I reside, (on the northern limits of the City of Raleigh) except my dwelling house, the Lawn and about one third of the Garden. The premises to rent consist of 1 dwelling House with Kitchen and Garden, now renting for $15 per month, also 2 small Houses for laborers renting for $4 each per month, 10 or more acres of freshly turned Clover-Sod, Brick Barn with stalls for 7 Head of Horses and Cattle, Carriage House and Cistern, Wagon Shed, Stock Lots with constant water, 300 bearing Fruit Trees. My said of a Nursery, containing 4 000 Apple, 1,500 Pear, 3,500 Peach Scions grafted and budded last season, besides, Osage Orange and other plants for hedges, flower garden &c. Farm and Garden Tools can be had with these premises. Terms half cash in advance, balance at end of each year.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1869.

"SING, OR SING THAT SONG AGAIN!"

We have been looking for several days for that old familiar editorial of the Sentinel's. We mean the one about Littlefield, Holden, carpet baggers, scalawags, corruption and the Davie street battle. We have missed it, and want to see it again.

When we first read it we didn't think much of it, but after reading it on forty or fifty subsequent occasions, we began to rather like it. On its last appearance, however, we regretted to observe that a new sentence had been introduced—an innovation against which we feel obliged to protest. We hope that in future it will appear in its original form."—Standard of the 10th.

The editor of the Standard shall be gratified. We love to please our readers.—There is such a diversity of taste and sentiment in the human family that one despairs of pleasing all, and must be content with the occasional pleasure of being sure of pleasing one.

When we received Senator Abbott's money, through Maj. Blair of the Yarboro' House, renewing his subscription to the SENTINEL, we told Blair to say to him that we did not know he was a subscriber, but, as he was, we hoped he got the worth of his money. For fear Blair forgot to deliver the message, we repeat it here.

We have very seldom taken notice of Pike or his paper, for we knew it had but a limited circulation—the blacks generally not being able to read, and the whites unwilling to read a paper established by Littlefield to defend his own corrupt projects, plans and practices.

In our absence our Assistant and Local have some times given Pike and the Standard more notice than we desired should be given them, as we never supposed that either ourself or the community could be much enlightened or benefited by any notice we might take of the concern, and we felt that they were too far gone for any hope of improving them to be indulged. It is a departure, therefore, from our own rule, to notice the above editorial of the Standard of Friday.

Pike wants us to write about "Littlefield, Holden, carpet-baggers, scalawags, corruption, and the Davie street battle." These are rich, prolific themes for the editorial pen, but we fear we shall not be able to gratify him as largely as his laudable desires would call for, for several reasons.

We must decline to write about Littlefield, because he is absent; we must decline to write about Holden, because of the golden rule of Dr. Franklin, "if you can say nothing good of a man, be silent."

We decline to speak of carpet-baggers at present, because they are a long way from home and in great trouble; and we decline to speak of scalawags, because they are grieved and repentant for their coalition with the carpet-baggers.

We would speak of Radical corruption—do attempt it sometimes, but we always feel our utter inability to do justice to the subject.

Now, if our thousands of readers will forgive us an allusion to the Davie street fight simply for the gratification of one anxious reader, we will mention some things connected with it not heretofore recorded. For instance, Cebe's son, Logan, was in the fight, a fact we did not know till recently. Nor do we mention it now to bring censure or reproof on the lad, for he has been learning law in Rockingham since, and will behave better after a while; besides, everybody speaks well of him, as they did of the Governor's son, Joseph William, when he was of Logan's age. We have borne no malice toward the "Junior Reserves" of that bloodless battle; we know it was the influence and advice of the "Home Guard" or "Senior Reserves" that put them forward on the occasion. We say now, to the "Senior Reserves," Governor Holden, Treasurer Jenkins, Cebe Harris Superintendent of Public Works, keep your children at home, out of mischief, and let men settle their own difficulties. We are all about the same age, if we are called "Junior."

But this is not what Lieut. Pike, (lately promoted to a Colonelcy by the Governor,) wishes to hear. He wanted us to repeat that he, Colonel Pike, said, forty eight hours after the affair, that he was "ashamed of having gone into that fight." Pike was only a lieutenant at that time, and now, that the Governor has promoted him, he may well be ashamed of the part he acted; for his friend Galloway, the leader of his party, said, on the street, it was a "d—d cowardly attack," and even the fighting parson, Sinclair, or Saint Clair, following the lead of Galloway, only leaving out the "d—" said the same thing. Where Galloway leads, the party follows.

Even Attorney General Coleman, standing in front of our office, exclaimed aloud, like another Richmond, that his "soul was in arms and he was eager for the fray!" "Come forth," said he, "I did not approve of the cowardly attempt to assassinate you, at the Depot; all I want is a fair fight and an open field, and Ajax asks no more!" It is true, the Attorney General might have been slightly "disguised" with liquor, and unaware of the fact that we were some forty miles away at the time.

We will close this article on the Davie street fight, having gratified Col. Pike, and, we hope, offended no other reader.

JUDGE CANTWELL'S HEAVY LOSSES.

Few of the late comrades in arms of this distinguished soldier and Jurist of the Cape Fear region, are aware of the heavy and severe losses he sustained by the result of the "late unpleasantness" between the North and South, or they would readily excuse him for taking office under his old enemy, Governor Holden, and his present anxiety to retain the same.

James Johnston lost twelve hundred slaves; the Bruces of Virginia and the Camerons of North Carolina, about as many; but they did not lose their all—they had their lands left. Not so with Judge Cantwell; he staked all and lost all. His secesh cockade, the first seen in this city, was lost. He lost his position of military Governor of Norfolk. He lost a Colonelcy in the Confederate army, which paid him $2,000 a year. He lost a city lot—the one where the post office now stands, worth some $20,000. This land had been bought by the United States Government, previous to the war, as a site for a U. S. Court House and Post Office. When the "little unpleasantness" occurred, the Judge walked down with the palmetto cockade in his hat, and entered the lot as vacant land, in the city of Raleigh. And this, too, was taken from him by the fortunes of war.

With all these heavy losses, and the way rather blocked up for immediate promotion in the old direction, who can censure the Judge for taking office under his old enemy, the Governor, and even feeling now a degree of joy that he did not succeed in hanging that functionary, during the war, as he had a great desire to do.

JUDGE TOURGEE.

The conversation at Burk's Hotel, between Judge Tourgee, Major York and a lady, as given by Chatham, will be read with indignation by every Christian man in the land. It will teach the members of the Bar, who have insulted their wives by having them pour out tea at their own table for this monster, that their experiment at conciliation is not worth their efforts.—Their efforts at conciliation have been base and humiliating, they have failed, they should have failed, they must now resort to another expedient. This man receives $2,400 as Code Commissioner and $2,500 as Judge, from the people in whose ruin he now glories and gloats. Shame on the men, we say, who sustain him. "Shame upon their brow should be ashamed to sit."

For the Sentinel.

PITTSBORO, Dec. 1869.

MR. EDITOR:—Let me give you a little table scene at Burke's hotel, during our late Court. The Judge, Tourgee, Solicitor Bulla and Major York being at table with many others, including ladies.

The conversation turned upon Sherman and his march, when Major York remarked, that while Sherman's march was both bloody and devastating and was unwarranted by Christian warfare, southern soldiers yet respected him because of the magnanimity he had shown to their broken swords. The Judge said he was with Sherman, and gloried in the burning of Columbia, their cotton, and their houses, and he was no worse than Sherman.

A lady at the table said, when Sherman struck the North Carolina line, she prayed to God devoutly that he might not pass along the line of the North Carolina Railroad, as her two daughters and their children lived on that road; she never had one thought for herself until she saw Fayetteville in flames. The Judge said, tauntingly, "that was all right, we burnt you out.—We had a right to burn you out; I helped to do it." The good woman said, Oh, Judge! Oh, Judge! Major York said he knew a confederate soldier Court-martialed and shot, at Frederick City, for taking a hog from a federal—and that in North Carolina, formerly, men were hanged for burning houses. The Judge said, "we burnt them and you won't hang us." Major York said, "yes, you were a barn-burner and not a soldier." The Judge said "the leaders of your party advise murder, and the members of your party execute it." Major York said, "It is false and not a word of truth in what you say."

The Judge quit the breakfast table in haste, and thus ended the scene.

Who will vote to re-elect Judge Tourgee? not

CHATHAM.

THE SUNNY SOUTH, THE EDEN OF THE WORLD.

MESSRS. EDITORS: We noticed in your issue of yesterday, an article from the Philadelphia Age in relation to the Garden of Eden, North Carolina, and as the Philadelphia Age, was not far wrong, we join in saying to the people of the North everywhere, to come down on a visit to this, the finest climate on the face of the globe. Just think of it; while Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, are at this moment buried in snow, in the cold embrace of dreary winter, we here in North Carolina, are enjoying the finest weather, the most pure and healthy clime, that an Italy or a Florida could boast of. Such beautiful skies, the weather is indeed, charming inviting the mocking bird forth to its charming strains. Where under the canopy of Heaven can such delightful weather be found, just bracing enough to sustain the invalids who often go too far south! We repeat, no more delightful clime to be found, nor more charming spot, than Raleigh, North Carolina, and with its Blair House just opened, and now in full blast, and with such houses as the Blair at Raleigh, the Kittrells, the Exchange, at Goldsboro, the Gaston at Newbern, and last, but not the least, the Purcell House at Wilmington, all combine to induce to and make the tour of North Carolina one of pleasure; and as this will be read by parties in the North, we say, if it is a delightful clime. It is to look for a home in this sunny South, come out to this country, and on your arrival at Raleigh, seek out Col. Little or Major Gen Richard Kingsland, direct your footsteps or your communications to these gentlemen, from whom you will receive hearty welcome and information in relation to any portion of this good old North State.

The routes here are by rail all the way, by way of Petersburg from Norfolk or from Richmond, or by way of the different steamship lines, leading from the North to Norfolk, City Point and Richmond, or from New York to Newbern, or New York to Wilmington, and thence here by Railroad.

The excursion ticket arrangement of the North Carolina Land Company affords such facilities for the tourist, that the arrival here are daily, of parties in search of health or of homes in this, the sunny South. To all intending to come South, we refer them to the Old dominion steamship line, New York.

From one on a tour in the

SUNNY SOUTH.

P. S. Since the above was written, the following gentlemen have arrived from Pennsylvania, in search of homes, to wit: D. C. John and R. W. John, from Bradford county. David Senart, Christian Fry, Benj Deardoff, Francis Ogden and J. J. Burnicker, from Adams county.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Dec. 10, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Leave of absence granted to Messrs. Graham, Beasley, Beeman, Moore, of Yancey, Mason, Smith, Love, Shoffner and White.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

The following bills were reported back from Committees, with favorable endorsements, to wit:

Bill to legalize certain official acts of the Chairman of the late County Courts.

Bill to repeal an act authorizing the County Commissioners of Chatham to levy a special tax.

Bill to prohibit the sale of spiritous liquors on the Western North Carolina R. R.

Bill to provide for the payment of the interest on the bonds of the state and to create a sinking fund for retiring the same.

Bill to incorporate the Rock Spring Camp Ground.

Bill to incorporate the Southern Copper Mining Company.

Mr. Smith from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported adversely on the bill to require certain acts to be approved by Township Trustees.

Mr. Beeman, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances reported back a resolution in favor of the Hon. Chas. Manly, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

Mr. Love said as the Senate had already intimated in very plain terms that it did not intend to allow any claim of this character, and the Committee on Claims who had examined this case, and other similar cases, a majority of them, though in opposition to his views, had reported adversely to them; in order, to save time, he moved to lay the resolution on the table. The motion prevailed, ayes 27, nays 12.

Mr. Shoffner, from the Committee on Corporations reported back the bill to incorporate the Randleman Manufacturing Company, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration, as they were of the opinion, the object could be accomplished under the General Act of Incorporation. The report was concurred in.

Mr. Sweet from the Committee on the Judiciary reported back the bill to authorize the Committee of Investigation to enforce the attendance of witnesses, recommending its passage.

Mr. Winstead, moved a suspension of the rules in order to put the bill on its several readings.

Mr. Davis, of Montgomery, opposed the motion and the bill. He said the whole thing was inaugurated simply to please a certain click in the other House, and there was really nothing in the bill, because the powers asked for were already granted.—It was a move of the opposition party, which he understood very well. It was an arrow pointed at an honorable and respectable citizen of this State, Gen. Milton S. Littlefield, the proprietor of the Standard, the leading Republican journal in this State. It was all for a sounding cymbal and nothing else. The truth was there were men in the State and in the capital who were as deeply interested in this matter as Gen. Littlefield, why are not Col. Cowan, A. J. Jones and other Railroad Presidents summoned? No, nothing will do, nothing can be done, unless a commission is sent to Florida to bring Gen. Littlefield back. He was tired of these investigation Committees. They were mere bubbles. He had enough of them last session, when nothing was gained by them.

A. H. Galloway (col.) opposed the motion and the bill also. He did not understand why the leading spirit of the opposition party only assailed one man in reference to these charges of fraud. Rumors were rife that General Littlefield had misappropriated the $7,000,000 or a portion of the funds issued to the Western N. C. R. R. He did not understand how he (Littlefield) could have done so, when for a long period of the time after the issues of the bonds, Geo. W. Swepson was the President of that Road, and the bonds had been issued to him. Littlefield had only been President a short time. He should oppose the resolution, because he had no idea that they would accomplish anything. The proposition originated in the House, in the brain of a Democrat, a carpet bagger from Tennessee, and its object was to injure the republican party.

Mr. Love said, he should support the motion and the bill, if for nothing else, because of the strange speeches just made, the one by the Senator from Montgomery and the other, by the Senator from New Hanover. He thought it very strange that the friends of General Littlefield should take it upon themselves to defend him, when his name was not mentioned in the resolution, nor was there any allusion to him or the Road he represents. Why not defend the officers of other Roads? He was gratified to state that the officers of the Road on which his people were interested, informed him that they were ready to make a full showing of the management of their Road. He hoped that the continued insinuations in regard to the Western N. C. Railroad would be stopped.

Mr. Robbins said that there were few who discussed subjects of this character in the calm and dispassionate manner which they deserved. Why not pass this resolution? What harm is there in it. The Senator from Montgomery says, it grants no additional power, then what objection can there be to it? There were two facts he had learned from a distinguished Republican gentleman, several weeks ago, in an address before the citizens of this place, that should awaken this General Assembly to a sense of their duty. General Dockery told us that the people demanded this investigation, and unless we give it to them, and satisfied them beyond a doubt that their money is not improperly used, repudiation would surely follow. What he said had weight and force in it, and should be felt, however wrong the suspicion of the people may prove to be in reference to this matter. He thought the action of the friends of General Littlefield in this debate, was in bad taste. There were no charges preferred against him in the resolution, consequently no defence was necessary. Since he (Littlefield) had been alluded to, he would say that since there were rumors derogatory to him, the least that he could have done was to have postponed his trip, (even if ten thousand dollars had been at stake,) and have come before the Committee and have said, here I am, gentlemen, investigate these charges. Senators charge that it is a party measure; he thought that in considering so important a matter as is contained in this resolution, that Senators should cast the partizan aside and be Senators in the true sense of the word. He did not believe that was the object, at least he knew that he had no partizan feeling in it, but if that was his object, nothing could please him better than to see Republicans attempting to cover up and trample a full investigation of this subject, and the men or party who opposes it injures himself.

Mr. Welker, (republican) said he had very little confidence in such Committees, because he had no idea that they would accomplish anything though he should vote for them. If his advice had been heeded last session there would have been no necessity for them, and these bonds would be now in the hands of the Treasurer; but the General Assembly adopted another policy; the bonds are out and it is not known where they are and if found out they cannot be of any advantage to the State. He was not in the ring last session, nor did he belong to any ring now. He opposed the placing of these bonds into the hands of one man. He was not responsible for that action.

The question recurring on the motion to suspend the rules, it prevailed, ayes 33 nays Messrs. Colgrove, Davis, Galloway (col) and Hayes—4.

Mr. Stephens, (Republican) offered the following as an additional section: "The Committee shall also have power to call out the militia to suppress the Ku Klux of Orange, Chatham and other counties of the State.

Mr. Forkner, (Republican) moved that the Senate refuse to entertain the amendment.

Mr. Robbins said the motion was not necessary as the amendment was irrelavent to the subject under consideration; it was out of order.

The Chair so ruled.

Mr. Shoffner called the previous question which was sustained, and the bill passed its second reading. Yeas 33, nays Messrs. Bellamy, Davis and Hayes 3.

Mr. Hayes moved to amend as follows, "provided no State officer shall be summoned to appear before the Committee.

Mr. Shoffner called for the previous question, which motion prevailed.

The amendment of Mr. Hayes was rejected. Yeas 12, nays 27.

Those voting in the affirmative, were Messrs. Bellamy, Colgrove, Davis, Galloway, colored, Hayes, Jones, of Columbus, Lassiter, Legg, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Smith and Stephens.

The bill passed its final reading. Yeas 34, nays 5, Messrs. Bellamy, Davis, Eppes, colored, Galloway, colored, and Moore, of Yancey.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Robbins: A bill to provide for the election of members of the General Assembly, and a bill to provide for the registration of the voters of the State. Referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

By Mr. Burns, a bill to amend an act passed by the General Assembly of 1855, creating one million of preferred stock in N. C. Railroad—referred to Committee on Judiciary.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Resolution authorizing the Governor to remove Wm. A. Smith, President of N. C. Railroad, from the Directorship of said Road, on motion of Mr. Robbins was laid on the table—ayes 27, nays 7. Nays.—Messrs. Bellamy, Barns, Colgrove, Davis, Etheridge, Galloway, colored, and Moore, of Yancey.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Dec. 10.

The House assembled at the usual hour.

Mr. Kinney presented a petition from the citizens of Davidson, which was referred.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Vestal: A resolution to raise a joint committee to call on the Treasurer and ascertain facts in regard to the disposition of State bonds issued by him to Railroad companies, &c. The resolution lies over.

By Mr. Malone: A resolution for a select committe to inspect the Auditor's report.—Lies over.

By Mr. Ragland: A bill in favor of W. A. Philpott. Referred.

By Mr. Ellington: A bill to repeal certain sections of chap. 12 Revised Code.—Referred.

On motion of Mr. Malone, the rules were suspended and his resolution for a committee on the Auditor's report taken up.

Mr. Graham moved its reference to the Finance Committee.

Considerable debate arose on this motion.

Mr. Sinclair opposed the reference because it looked like shirking investigation of money affairs. He wished to see the $76 000 "contingencies" accounted for.

The motion to refer was rejected, yeas 21, nays 53, and the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Stilley introduced a bill concerning registration of voters in cities and townships. Referred.

Various bills and resolutions from the Senate were received and appropriately disposed of.

On motion of John Williamson, colored, the rules were suspended and his bill, which declared all poll tax above $2 illegal, was taken up. The question being on the Finance Committee's substitute.

Harris, of Franklin, opposed the substitute and declared the present system of taxation oppressive upon the people.

Williamson accepted the substitute.

Mr. Pou favored the measure, because it was but carrying out the express declaration of the Constitution.

Mr. Malone opposed the act because it was an attempt to make the Legislature construe the Constitution—a question which comes in the province of the Judiciary. The policy of the act, he thought was bad, it creates confusion—the Supreme Court has decided that special tax for special purposes may exceed the equation.

Mr. Durham offered an amendment, that the State and County taxes combined, (both general and special) shall never hereafter exceed $2 on $300 in value of the taxable property of the State.

Messrs. Seymour, Downing, Leary, Justice, Stilley, Sinclair, and Vest opposed the amendment in remarks more or less lengthy.

Mr. Hodnett favored it, because pledges were given by the Republicans that the poll tax should not exceed $2, and the same pledge was given that property tax should not exceed 66⅔ on the $100 worth. These pledges had secured the adoption of the Constitution; but they had been broken in regard to property.

Mr. Moore, of Chowan, opposed the amendment and favored the substitute, and made quite a lengthy speech in its favor.

Mr. Seymour, called the previous question, which was sustained and the amendment lost, yeas 37, nays 58.

YEAS.—Messrs. Armstrong, Boddie, Candler, Clayton, Davis, Durham, Ellis, Franklin, Gatling, Gibson, Gunter, Harris, of Franklin, Hawkins, Hicks, High, Hodnett, Humphries, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Long, of Chatham, Malone, Matheson, McMillan, Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Nicholson, Painter, Pou, Proffitt, Robinson, Shaver, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Stanton, Thompson, Welch, Williams, of Harnett, and Williams, of Sampson—38.

NAYS.—Messrs. Ames, Ashworth, Banner, Blair, Carey, Cawthorn, Cherry, Crawford, Dixon, Downing, Eagles, Forkner, Foster, French, Gahagan, Hendricks, Hilliard, Hinnant, Hodgin, Hoffman, Horney, Hudgings, Ingram, Justus, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kelly, of Moore, Kinney, Leary, Long, of Richmond, Mayo, McCanless, Moore, of Chowan, Morrill, Morris, Ragland, Renfrow, Robbins, Reynolds, Seymour, Sinclair, Simonds, Snipes, Stevens, Stilley, Sweat, Sykes, Vestal, Vest, Waldrop, White, Williamson and Wilson—52.

Mr. Sinclair, (Republican) here arose to a question of privilege.

He was reported in the Standard as joining Mr. French in a minority report against his own resolution in reference to raising a Committee to manage the investigation before the Committee of the Whole. The facts were that Mr. French had assured him (Sinclair) that he (French) had no intention to press his bill until the Committee of the Whole had proven a failure in eliciting facts, then he (Sinclair) agreed to support Mr. French's bill because he (Sinclair) was determined to probe this matter to the bottom, &c, &c.

It will be remembered when the debate occurred here, on Monday last, the name of Colonel Cowan was mentioned in a manner which he (Sinclair) considered as impugning that gentleman's honesty; he (Sinclair) promptly resented the indignity and both Mr. Ingram and Mr. Dowing courteously disclaimed any intention of reflecting upon Colonel Cowan. Strange to say, however, that the Wilmington Post carefully copies the debate so far as it reflects upon Colonel Cowan, and as carefully excludes all that was said in that gentleman's vindication. Such conduct he (Sinclair) denounced as most infamous and here in his seat denounced it as such. Where carpetbagism develops itself in destroying the reputation of our honest and best men it should be frowned down and kicked over the State lines.

Regular business resumed.

The question recurred on the substitute of the Finance Committee.

The substance of this substitute is that it is the intention of the constitution to limit the combined taxes, both general and special, for State and county purposes, to $2 on the poll, and forbids the laying a greater tax than that, and requires the refunding to the counties, the excess of that amount already collected.

The bill then passed the second reading, yeas 60, nays 30.

The bill then passed the third reading under a suspension of the rules.

Various bills were reported from the Judiciary Committee and placed on the calendar.

The annual report of the Superintendent of Public Works was received and ordered to be printed.

The House then adjourned.

The Family Mansion contains Eleven Rooms; the Out-Buildings consists of Kitchen, Dairy, Ice-House, Smoke-House, Laborers' Houses, Barns, Stables and a Granary capable of accommodating from 15,000 to 20,000 bushels of Grain. In addition, about 150 yards from the house, is the Mill—Grist and Flour—with three runs of Stone; and in its near vicinity, Miller's house, Gin house, Blacksmith shop, and Cotton Screw.

It is believed a Canal might be dug from the Creek, supplying the pond, to run the Mill, and the Land beneath, of extraordinary fertility, given to the cultivation of large quantities of Grain or even Rice. The Mill Building, resting on a story of rock foundation, has two stories and a half of brick above, with a wall on the first story two feet thick and could be converted into a factory. The Residence is well situated, and commands a fine water view.

Fully two-thirds, if not more, of the population of Rowan county is White.

Parties desiring to see the property can apply at Raleigh, N. C., to Mr. J. H. Ennis, at the North Carolina Bookstore; at Salisbury to Brown, Mock & Co., H. H. Helper, Esq., or Col. H. J. Long, Express Office; at Charlotte, to Wm. Phifer, Esq., Dr. E. Nye Hutchinson.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1869.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

ARRIVED.—Rev. J. H. Dally, stationed minister of the M. E. Church, South, for this city, arrived last night and will fill the pulpit of his Church to morrow at the usual hours.

CATHOLIC FAIR.—On monday evening next our Catholic fellow citizens will commence a series of Fairs, which will continue during the whole week, at Tucker Hall. From what we have learned, we think the approaching festivities will be conducted on a scale of magnificence hitherto unknown in this community.

Contributions are daily arriving, not only from the principal cities and towns of this State, but from the principal Northern cities.

The Fair will be so conducted as to insure a pleasant and agreeable time to all who may attend.

FURNITURE WARE ROOMS.—We were really unaware, until we paid a visit, a day or two since, to the Furniture Ware Rooms of A. W. Fraps, on the corner of Fayetteville and Davie Streets, of the extent to which his business is being conducted.—We do not believe that there is a more extensive establishment in the State. The varieties displayed in his Rooms, (to which daily additions are being made,) embrace work of all patterns and descriptions, from the plainest to the most highly ornamental, and from articles of the cheaper materials to those of the most valuable woods. The styles both of utility and luxuriance, are well diversified, and every taste can be satisfied.

We regard these Ware-Rooms of Mr. Fraps as one of the "lions" of the city, and would advise citizens and strangers alike to pay them a visit.

Many of the articles in the House would make any appropriate and useful Christmas present to family or friends.

CONCERT.—On last evening at Tucker Hall, a charming entertainment was given by the Baptist Sabbath School of this city.

The children made a beautiful appearance and acquitted themselves admirably.

The Superintendent of the school, W. J. Palmer, Esq., deserves special commendation for the excellent training and deportment of the little ones under his charge.

THE LECTURE THURSDAY NIGHT.—The lecture by F. H. Busbee, Esq., our talented young fellow-townsman, on Thursday evening last, was in every way a complete success, and fully realized the expectations of his many friends.

In the limited space at our command it is impossible to say all that is deserved in reference to this really able effort on the part of our young friend, but suffice it to say that the universal verdict was—splendid, charming.

The Demand Tells The Story.—From all directions orders for PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR come pouring in. All the noxious Dyes &c, go down before it. A year hence they will be unmarketable. The ladies say it is as pleasant to use as a perfumed toilet water, and it is as transparent as crystal. Nothing else reproduces so perfectly the original hue of the hair.

ANOTHER KU KLUX OUTRAGE.—A Mrs. Coffee, living near China Grove, Rowan county, notified Mayor Long of Salisbury, this week, that her husband was missing, and she supposed he had been Ku Kluxed; whereupon the Mayor sent Deputy Sheriff Burke to investigate the matter, the result of which was, that Mr. Coffee had likely left on business; that no murder had been committed and not even the track of a Ku Klux was visible in the sand about China Grove, so reported by Mayor Long himself, in the Examiner.

WHAT'S BONDS?—The Standard quoted new N. C. Bonds at 37½ yesterday morning under the telegraphic head; on what authority? In truth, the entire quotations of Southerns, yesterday morning in that paper, were received from some other source than the telegraph lines.

HARD TIMES, AND WORSE A-COMING.—At last accounts, only eleven Sheriffs had settled with the Treasurer, in full; eleven had not been heard from, and the balance have only reported in part.

Logan Harris, the reading Clerk of the Senate, made an announcement to that body, at the adjournment on yesterday, that at the request of several Senators, he had addressed a note to the Treasurer, asking if he could pay the members the per diem due, before the Christmas holidays, and had received an answer that it was impossible, unless the Sheriffs paid in better than they have done.

That's bad for the hands—it don't run in as fast as it runs out.

A FAMILY BLESSING.—House-keepers cannot make a better investment of a small amount of money, than by purchasing one of the Doty Washing Machines. One half the labor required by any other machine which we have ever seen is sufficient for this. It is light, durable, and washes well. We have used one in our family, and would not be without it for any consideration.—Greensborough Patriot.

We, the Local, have also one of these "family blessings," and were we to say all in its favor that we have been ordered to do by our "better half," we should be accused of speaking extravagantly. It saves time, labor and clothes; indeed, renders washing a mere pastime, and washingday rather a holiday than otherwise. No crying over blistered wrists and knuckles; no soap suds slops over the kitchen floor; no wet and draggled dresses; no ginger tea after the day's washing; all is done in good time, and everything pleasant about the house by the time we get home after the business of the day. So thoroughly pleased is our good dame with the Doty washing machine, that we would not be surprised that the next little responsibility at our house should be named Doty, with a male or female prefix, according to circumstances.

For the Sentinel.

NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

SIXTH DAY.

TUESDAY, Dec. 7th.

The electoral College, in session on yesterday, having adjourned to 9 o'clock this morning, was opened by its Chairman Dr A. C. Harris. Religious exercises conducted by Rev. Joseph S. Dunn. Balloting was continued—Ministers and Laymen voting separately—until the following Representatives to the General Conference, were elected.

Ministerial, W. H. Wills, C. F. Harris, T. H. Pegram, Dr. A. C. Harris, A. W. Lineberry, A. M. Lowe and John Paris.

Laical, G. J. Cherry, J. P. Speight, Dr J. M. Hancock, Dr. L. W. Batchelor, J. M. Odell, J. T. Pickens and Dr. P. A. Cox.

Alternates, C. A. Pickens, Branch Merrimon and A. Gray, Ministers.

S. S. Norman, D. L. Michael, and W. A. Lindsay, Laymen.

After this announcement, the Electoral College dissolved and the Conference resumed business.

Rev. Ira. T. Wyche, Agent of the American Bible Society, was invited to make any communication, he might desire, to the Conference: Whereupon he gave an interesting statement of the society which he represents, expressing a desire for the co-operation of all, in disseminating the word of God, "without note or comment," throughout the land.

The following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted. "Having heard with pleasure, the address of Rev. Ira. T. Wyche Agent of the American Bible Society—"Resolved, That we heartily co-operate with said Society in the spread of the Holy Scriptures according to the plan of the Society." [Your correspondent wishes to express his conviction that the interests of the American Bible Society, in the State of North Carolina, committed to the hands of its present Agent Rev. Ira. T. Wyche, is well subserved.]

The Committee on Itinerancy and orders, reported unfavorably on the application of Rev. W. A. Hunter for orders and for the itinerancy, his attainments not having come up to the standard of the Church. He is however commended to the fostering care of the Conference.

The same Committee, in consequence of their inability to take full work under the Stationing Committee, recommended adversely to the application of Rev Jordan Barringer, an experienced and laborious minister and J. C. Patterson for Itinerancy. They recommended Henry Lewellen for the "office and work" of Deacon and he was examined thereto.

S. S. Norman Esq., was appointed Conference Steward, whose exhibit of the receipts of our ministers and preachers, shows the stringency of the times and the necessity of self sacrifice on their part, to further the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom.

The readiness with which these men responded to the call, and willingness with which they accepted their appointments, clearly indicate that the corps of ministers and preachers belonging to the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, are unsurpassed in their earnestness and zeal for the cause of Christ and the establishment of his Church on the earth.

Rev. Joseph Causey, who for some time had not taken regular and active work, was gladly received back into the Conference.

Later in the day, according to previous arrangement, he, with his colleague, W. D. Hardin, Esq., were introduced as delegates from the "Central Sabbath School Association," whereupon Rev. Joseph Causey, whose soul seemed to be enwrapped in the work, gave an account of the organization, rise and progress of the association, when the following was presented and adopted:

WHEREAS, The delegates from the Central Sabbath School Association, Rev. Joseph Causey and W. D. Hardin, Esq., have entertained us in detailing the origin and progress of the Association, enlisting our feelings and sympathies favorably; and whereas, we have ever felt earnest solicitude in the cause of Sabbath Schools,

Therefore, In furtherance of the object desired by the Association and endowed by us, this Conference appoint Rev. Joseph Causey, Sabbath School Agent or Missionary, and that we commend him to the communities he may visit, as one qualified to accomplish so desirable an object.

The Standing Committee, whose duty, as defined in the book of discipline, shall be, in the event of the death, resignation or suspension of the President, to appoint a President pro tem, to serve until the sitting of the next annual Conference, was elected as follows:

Alson Gray and John Paris, stationed and Washington Bowman, unstationed Ministers, and J. L. Ogburn, John C. Roberts and Wesley A. Coe, Laymen.

The Treasurer of the "Superannuated Fund Society" made his annual report, showing a balance of two thousand three hundred and fifty dollars, to the credit of the Society.

This fund was constituted by the legacies of three christian ladies of the Methodist Protestant Church, and although it suffered much from the war, some of the destitute itinerants, Widows and Orphans—who were beneficiaries, have received material aid, by the foresight and action of these fast and firm friends of the Church.

Rev. Alson Gray was appointed Fraternal Messenger to the next Annual Conference of the Va. District, Methodist Protestant Church.

Rev. J. C. Deans, was released from the agency of the Yadkin College interest, and Rev. T. H. Pegram appointed in his stead.

The Rev. Mr. Deans will continue the agency in behalf of the interests of the Trustees of Jamestown Female College.

Soon after this institution of learning, located at Jamestown, Guilford county, was built, furnished and fairly on its way to usefulness, it was destroyed by fire; leaving a debt of several thousand dollars hanging over it, which is not yet fully paid, and it is in view of liquidating this debt, that this agency is continued. Rev. Jno. L. Swain will operate in this capacity, west of the Blue Ridge.

Rev. C. A. Pickens offered and the Conference adopted the following:

Resolved, That each itinerant be and they are hereby requested to act in a Missionary capacity to the colored people within the bounds of their respective circuits.

The financial Committee fixed the salary of the President of the Conference at six hundred dollars, and apportioned the same among the different fields of labor.

The following was offered and passed unanimously, by a rising vote: "Resolved, That this Conference is highly gratified at the hospitality extended to them by this community during our present session and hereby tender our thanks for the same."

The Secretary was made "publishing committee," to have the proceedings of this annual session of the North Carolina Conference published in pamphlet form.

James Deans and J. L. Michaux, Superannuated.

After announcing the appointments, the President assisted by Rev. Alson Gray, Jno. Paris, and R. H. Wills ordained Joseph S. Dunn and George E. Hunt to the "office and work of Elders" in the Church of Christ."

Thus ended, at about 10½ o'clock, P. M., a very pleasant and harmonious session of our Conference.

A. C. HARRIS, Sec'y.

U. S. COURT.

Court met at the usual hour.

Mr. W. Mc. L. McKay and R. Y. McAden appeared in attendance to-day.

On motion of Gov. Bragg, Mr. Josiah Collins was admitted as an Attorney, Solicitor and proctor of this Court upon taking the usual oath. The unfinished business of yesterday was taken up, U. S. v. 131 half boxes manufactured tobacco, and after argument, was submitted to the jury who for their verdict find all issues in favor of the claimant of the property seized. The discussion of this case consumed the whole of the morning. Court then adjourned until the evening.

At 4 P. M. the Court reassembled but nothing of importance to our readers transacted—the usual judgments and continuances entered. At a late hour the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

HOLDS HIS GRIP.—We see Mr. Moring holds on to his seat in the House of Commons, although banned by the 14th amendment. It he were a Democrat they would be after him with a sharp stick, sure. "O! my sweet seven dollars a day, how can I relinquish you!" And there he sits, and every dollar he gets is illegally paid, and every vote he gives vitiates, in a constitutional point of view, the measure he votes on. But he is a good Rad, and nothing is said about it. "O, consistency! thou art a jewel."

HOGS.—Have we an ordinance against hogs running at large on the streets? If we have, let it be repealed, at once, for "obvious reasons."

OBITUARY.

In Edenton, N. C., at the the residence of his father, on Sunday, Nov. 28th, Dr. WILLIAM CHARLES ROBERTS, in the 31st year of his age.

Dr. ROBERTS was well known and highly esteemed in Raleigh. He was, for some time, during the war, in charge of the Wayside Hospital near the Rail road. He was indefatigable in his attentions to the suffering soldiers, and the disease, consumption, of which he died, was induced or developed by the exposure and loss of sleep, which these attentions entailed. His friends and those of his honored and lamented father-in-law, the late Gov. Worth, will be deeply pained at the news of his death.

In Edenton, where he was raised, the companions of his early life, and all, who knew him, honored and loved him sincerely for his many excellences, and especially for the purity and guiltlessness of his character.

He received Holy Communion a few hours before his death, at the hands of a clergyman of the Episcopal Church, of which he was a member and fell asleep in Jesus, with perfect peace, and trust, and joy.

A Card.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, Free of Charge.

From Rev. C. H. WILEY formerly State Supt. of Education.

BRISTOL, TENN., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use of the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. WEATHERLY Prin Clas. and Math. School, Elizabeth City, Oct. 25, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. E. OLIVER Mount Olive Oct 20, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Common Schools. * * I am already using Monteith's Geographies.—JOHN D JOHNSON, Yadkinville, Sept. 28, 1869.

I am and have ever been an earnest advocate of uniformity in school books. The Board recommendations—Arithmetics and Geographies—are the best that could have been made.—H. E. SMITH Lincolnton, Sept. 28th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. S. C. ALEXANDER, Charlotte, Oct. 11, 1869.

Steele's "Nat. Philosophy" received. Am struck with its superiority to the other in many respects. As a class is waiting, substitute in my order Steele's Philosophy for first introduction —G W. JEWETT, Wilmington, Oct. 13, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 185–, and up to this time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined McNally's Geography and Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. E. DUGGER, Prin. Male Academy Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's (No 4) into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. ALDERT SMEDES D.D., Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. WM. S. LACY, Raleigh.

Davies' arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. FRANK VAUGHAN, Elizabeth City, Oct. 11, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of this state of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that so many have been selected from the National Series.—Rev. W. L. MILLER, Charlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the readers; and as to the Series of Geographies, I have long used no others when these could be obtained Dr. WM. B. HARRELL, Prin. High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment a charming school book.—Col. WM BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic.—Dr. CLOSS, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. An admirable work.—M. L. LITTLE, Prin. Pleasant Hill seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—SPURGEON IVEY, Prin. Auburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. WM. A. CHERCHAIN, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose. With Davies' Mathematical series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them. In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Prin. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school. I use Davies. I consider his works incomparably superior in many respects. Monteith's Series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. JOS H. FOY, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof W. C. KERR, State Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor Johnson Olive's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies Arithmetics, Clark's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Franks, Grove P O, has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Branch, New Hill P. O., uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, Green Level P. O., uses the National Reader, Copy-Books, Monteith's Geographies, and York's Grammar; Mrs. Emma Baugham, Cary P O., uses the National series; Mr H. C. Olive, New Hill P. O., introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 250 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National Series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. MARRETT, Chatham county, Sept 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our State Schools.—Prof. J. M. M CALDWELL, Greensboro' High school, Oct. 23, 1869.

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable. The structure of language is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the state.—Statesville American 1866.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Have acknowledged superiority by the most competent judges.—Western Sentinel.

Davies is excellent in the first degree.—Wadesboro Argus.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National Series, and think how we groped along the dry and uninteresting "task" of our boyhood, we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 58* policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13 337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
